The Whole Wall Mural

German POW Camp Concordia housed over 4,000 German POWs during WWII.

Tour or take in a show at the Brown Grand Theatre, a restored 1907 French Renaissance style opera house. Ask about Earl—the ghost!

The National Orphan Train Museum tells the story of the estimated 200,000 orphaned and homeless children who were placed out from New York to new homes across America from 1854-1929.

Take a game break! Play “I Spy” on the Whole Wall Mural, the longest sculpted brick mural in the US!

Enjoy a walk on the grounds or ask to tour the Nazareth Convent—home to the Sisters of St. Joseph.

Loads of free fun can be found at the annual Clyde Watermelon Festival, Labor Day Weekend and Concordia Fall Fest the last Saturday of September.

Fun and quirky sights can be found along the way!
