

Itinerary

Where to find Illinois Lincoln Highway Interpretive Murals and Gazebos

Currently there 22 are murals installed along the Illinois route and its corridor, with several others in development. They can be easily seen while traveling, yet each location is accessible to pull off the road for a closer view and to read the exciting story.

Mural Locations:

Ashton	Geneva	Rochelle
Aurora	Genoa	Rock Falls
Byron	Joliet	St. Charles
Creston	Malta	University Park
Crest Hill	Maple Park
Cortland	Morrison
DeKalb	North Aurora
Dixon	Oswego
Fulton	Oregon

To identify our gazebos look for the two signs mounted on the outside railings; the Historic Route "L" sign, and our Coalition logo. Take a closer look at the distinctive panel displays shaded under the gazebo's roof, each tells a different story of the early highway its communities.

Gazebo Locations:

Aurora	Malta
Batavia	North Aurora
Creston	New Lenox
DeKalb	Oregon
Dixon	Park Forest
Frankfort	Plainfield
Fulton	Rochelle
Geneva	Sterling

Visit all Illinois Lincoln Highway Interpretive Exhibits

The Dixon Welcome Center: is home to our large scale, interactive exhibit. This captivating layout gives the entire history of the Lincoln Highway, with a life size replica of a Lincoln Highway marker. Take your picture there as one of the Van Buren sisters on an "Indian motorcycle" as they traveled on the Lincoln Highway!

Illinois Lincoln Highway Interpretive Kiosk: is currently housed in the Phillips Park Visitor Center in Aurora; highlighting significant portions in the history of the early highway. A computer is provided to browse our website and send Lincoln Highway E-Postcards!

Illinois Lincoln Highway Traveling Exhibit: For the most current location of the exhibit please see our web site. This large multi panel exhibit displays dramatic, old-time images of the early highway, along with stories telling of the development of the first paved road.
