

Natchez Trace Parkway

Hohenwald, Tennessee

A City as Unique as its Name

Traveling Natchez Trace Parkway?

the Elephant Sanctuary®

in Tennessee

Welcome Center located at 27 E. Main St., downtown. Hear about "The Girls" and their lives in Sanctuary.
www.elephants.com 931-796-6500

Shopping and dining opportunities downtown and beyond

Located adjacent to Museum 931-295-3219

Strand Art Gallery

Visit Meriwether Lewis Death & Burial Site at milepost 385.9, then exit onto Tennessee Hwy. 20, turn right and follow the road into downtown Hohenwald, Tennessee Delve into the controversial death of Meriwether Lewis (for whom Lewis County was named) at the Lewis County Museum of Natural History. Was it murder or suicide? Located at 108 E. Main St., downtown Hohenwald.

www.lewiscountymuseum.com 931-796-1550

Hohenwald Municipal Golf Course is a beautiful 9 hole public course located east of downtown.
www.hohenwaldgolf.com 931-796-5421

Lewis County is home to 3 wineries along the Natchez Trace Wine Trail. All 3 are located in the east section of the county.
www.ntwines.com

Not familiar with Hohenwald's attractions? Check out our video at www.hohenwaldlewischamber.com. Call us at 931-796-4084.

History

Racing

Amish & Mennonite Settlement

Horseback Riding

Relaxing

Special Events

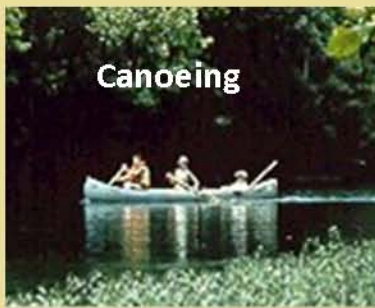

Wineries

Hiking

Camping—Big ...or Small

Canoeing

Biking

Get the details today.
www.hohenwaldlewischamber.com
931-796-4084