PAHRUMP AT A GLANCE

DAY 1

Wake up and hit an early tee time at the Mountain Falls Golf Course or Lakeview Executive Golf Course, where you'll tee off while the sun rises over the gorgeous Spring Mountains. After playing on some of the finest greens in Southern Nevada, head into town for lunch at one of our outstanding dining options. Then, have a little culture for dessert at the Pahrump Valley Museum, which features significant historical pieces as well as original Pahrump buildings and one of the country's largest collections of President Lincoln memorabilia. Of course, all that history is bound to make one thirsty. Luckily, Pahrump has not one but two award-winning wineries right here in town. Head over to the Tuscan villa-styled Sanders Family Winery for a free tasting, and a free story or two. Follow that up with a trip to Pahrump Valley Winery to sample the other great wines our town has to offer, and stick around for a fantastic meal at their crown jewel Symphony's, one of the finest restaurants in town. That's a lot of big fun to pack in one small town.

DAY 2

Hit the trail early on one of Pahrump's many Adventure Trails. Whether it's for ATVs, mountain biking, jeeps, rock climbing, or hiking, Pahrump Valley has beautiful trails criss-crossing our scenic valley, perfect for experts and novices alike. Then head Northwest on Hwy 190 to Amargosa Opera House, a one-of-a-kind opera house and cultural center that serves as a gateway into Death Valley. Once at Death Valley National Park, you'll witness the natural wonders of extremes.

Death Valley features the lowest elevation on the continent as well as snow capped peaks, and lush foliage amid arid deserts. Just east along Hwy 267 is Scotty's Castle, an infamous and extravagant two-story Mission Revival and Spanish Colonial Revival style villa that strikes a bold silhouette against its desert backdrop. Pahrump Valley and Death Valley are the best way to experience the history, beauty, and excitement of Southern Nevada. It's a day trip that's worlds away.

DAY 3

It's time for some good clean fun at Jetpack America. Located at Spring Mountain Motorsports Ranch, Jetpack America will have you soaring up to 40 feet above their new freshwater lake and aquatic center. Their water-powered jetpacks will have you hovering, spinning, walking on water, and even 'submarining' like a dolphin. There are several flight packages available, from tandem flights for younger pilots to full-fledged jetpack experiences that will have you flying above - and below - the water like your favorite superhero.

Located inside the Pahrump Nugget, finish your action-packed day with a succulent USDA choice or higher steak at Stockman's Steakhouse, voted best steakhouse in rural Nevada. Make sure to pair your delicious meal with one of their signature cocktails or a glass off their eclectic wine list, and prepare yourself for one of the best nights of sleep you'll ever have.
