It is my pleasure to recommend Mock Turtle Press (MTP).

If anyone is looking for a one-stop web design shop; Mock Turtle Press is the place to go. Period.

The folks at MTP took care of EVERYTHING for me. One telephone call delivered a reasonably priced professional product.

They negotiated the maze of domain registration and web hosting—a process that I found time consuming, difficult and intimidating. Now, MTP does it all for me.

I appreciate being able to talk with the fine people at MTP when I have questions, yet, I did not have to baby-sit their work on my web site!

The folks at MTP are true professionals. They now administer all my web site needs.

Thanks MTP!
