Cedar Key The tranquil waters and gorgeous sunsets in and around Cedar Key are a must see. Have you ever wanted to just get away from it all? Did you ever think it possible to find a place where the sky is blue and sunshine filters through trees, a place of peaceful repose, a place where the air is clean, still, quiet and where you and nature can walk together? There is such a place and it is waiting for you to discover it: Levy County and her Gulf islands, in Florida.

Experience life at a slower, more reflective pace, seasoned with gentle southern hospitality. This part of Florida's natural beauty appeals to nature lovers from all over the world looking for the perfect eco-vacation.

The small island of Cedar Key offers art, history, wildlife viewing, fishing at its best and magnificent sunsets in an "Old Florida" fishing and clam farming village setting. The island has numerous accommodations, including B & B's, vacation rentals, cottages, mom & pop, and RV campsites.

This working waterfront community produces one of the largest harvests of farm raised clams in the southeastern United States. Restaurants are beaming with Fresh From Florida seafood.

Strolling along historic Dock Street or Second Street is a MUST DO when visiting this seaside town. Best way to enjoy the island is to rent a golf cart and tour the island, stopping to have lunch along the way at any of the restaurants.

It is the perfect way to recover from that hectic pace we find ourselves in. Kick back and enjoy this friendly 'Off-the-Beaten-Path' island.
