

WELCOME

We look forward to welcoming visitors to Ridgeland's scenic outdoors, numerous restaurants, safe hotels and our abundance of boutique and big name shops. Guests are advised to follow Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) guidelines while both traveling to and visiting our beautiful city. Safe practices include washing hands regularly with soap and water, minimizing close contact with others, maintaining a minimum of six feet of social distance from others and wearing a mask when required. Visitors are also encouraged to check our website visitridgeland.com to stay informed of additional public health guidance for our city.

We will do our part to ensure all visitors can experience the joy of traveling to Ridgeland. We thank you for doing yours!

Natchez Trace Parkway

800-305-7417 • scenictrace.com and nps.gov/natr

This historic, 444-mile scenic parkway links Natchez, Miss. with Nashville, Tenn. and crosses some of the most beautiful terrain in Mississippi, Alabama and Tennessee. The Parkway is a National Scenic Byway an All-American Road and has been chosen as one of America's ten best biking roads.

Chisha Foka Multi-Use Trail

The Chisha Foka is a 10-mile paved path that runs through historic Choctaw homelands. Named in honor of the Choctaw town that stood where the city of Jackson is today, the name Chisha Foka (pronounced chee-sha-foe-ka) means "among the post oaks" in the Choctaw language.

The southern terminus of the Chisha Foka Multi-Use Trail is at milepost 95.8 with the nearest parking at Choctaw Agency (milepost 100.7) the site of the liaison office between the U.S. government and the Choctaw Nation in the early 1800's. The northern terminus of the trail is at milepost 105.6 at the Barnett Reservoir Overlook. The trail gradually slopes and winds through various hardwood and pine trees. Each season offers new sights and smells as different foliage, blossoms and wildflowers appear. While on this area of protected greenspace in Ridgeland, be on the lookout for the variety of birds and mammals that call this area home.
