Oldham County, Kentucky is the perfect destination for those seeking a horse and bourbon adventure to get your motor running! Known as the Farm Tour Capital of Kentucky, Oldham County is located 25 minutes from downtown Louisville on I-71. You can choose from a variety of unique accommodations, including horse farm B&Bs and vacation rentals, to rest your head and hooves. No matter where you stay, you're sure to enjoy Oldham County from the start!

FULL DAY 1

Oldham County is not just a great place to stay, but also a home for farm tours. From April to October, visitors can explore 15 different farms in the area. These tours offer a diverse range of experiences, from horse farms to dairies that make cheese. Some of the most popular tours include Second Stride and TRF Sanctuary Farm at Chestnut Hall, both owned by the CEO of Churchill Downs and managed by retired racehorse nonprofits. Other must-see farms include Windy Meadows, Harvest Moon Dairy & Cheese, and Woodland Bison Farm. Book more than one!  Post your selfie on Facebook and tag Tour Oldham County KY!

There's no shortage of activities to enjoy in Oldham County! For those looking for a bit of excitement, head over to Open Range Sports, the state's largest indoor range. And if you're in the mood for some delicious bourbon, Kentucky Artisan Distillery is just across the street, offering tastings of their three small batch bourbons. For a more tranquil experience, check out Yew Dell Botanical Gardens next door, where you can explore a castle and the largest collection of hostas and hellebores in the country. Be sure to visit April - June for The Big Bloom.  Post your selfie on Facebook and tag Tour Oldham County KY!

Make a late afternoon stop at 3rd Turn Brewing Oldham Gardens where you will find Oldham Gardens - the state's largest cultivated beer garden, adjoined by connected open-air greenhouses. If you visit in the spring, wisteria will hang overhead in the outdoor bars.

Round out your first night in Oldham County with a nice farm-to-table dinner at the only horse barn restaurant in the U.S., Barn8 Restaurant & Bourbon Bar at Hermitage Farm. After dinner, be sure ask your server for ArtWalk tickets— their laser light show through the woods of the farm. Post your food selfie on Facebook – TAG Tour Oldham County KY!

FULL DAY 2

If you're looking for a unique shopping and dining experience, head to Main Street La Grange. Start your day with a delicious cup of coffee from La Grange Coffee Roasters, then take a leisurely stroll down the quaint and walkable street. Browse through the shops and galleries, and listen for the rumble of the freight train that runs right down the middle of Main Street - a truly one-of-a-kind sight that can only be found here. Post your mural selfie on Facebook – TAG Tour Oldham County KY!

If you're looking for a fun and educational day out, be sure to check out the museums on Main Street. At the Oldham County History Museum, you can snap a selfie with a life-size bronze sculpture of Bruce Heilman, a WWII veteran from Oldham County on his marine-issue Harley Davidson. And if you're a train enthusiast, head to the La Grange Train Museum & Education Center on the other end of Main Street to learn about the town's connection to the railroad. Post your sculpture selfie on Facebook – TAG Tour Oldham County KY!

If you're out for a ride and looking for a popular biker lunch spot, take a ride down Highway 524 to Westport. This scenic Kentucky byway offers stunning views of the Ohio River and plenty of curves to keep you entertained. Once you arrive in Westport, stop by Knock on Wood Country Mercantile & Café for a delicious lunch and homemade dessert. Don't forget to snap a selfie by the river before continuing on the Highway 524 horseshoe loop back to Highway 42. Post your Westport selfie on Facebook – TAG Tour Oldham County KY!

End your evening on Main Street La Grange with dinner at Ernestos on Main Street, One Nineteen West Main, Hometown Pizza, or Main Street Bourbon & Ale House before heading back to enjoy your last night in Oldham County. Post your food selfie on Facebook – TAG Tour Oldham County KY!
