Scenic & Historic Byway

Take a road trip through history on Los Caminos Antiguos Scenic & Historic Byway.

The majestic 129 mile route is located in south central Colorado's beautiful San Luis Valley. Translated as "the way of the ancients", this byway follows trails created by the first hunter-gatherers, Native Tribes, and then Spanish explorers looking for land to raise families and build communities. Experience the same the journey some of the earliest settlers took on horseback and wagons as you wind your way through Colorado's oldest towns. You'll see beautiful views as the byway climbs over three thousand feet and back through high mountain desert. Along the way you'll enjoy a waterfall, sand dunes, and the famous Stations of the Cross Shrine.
