CARSON CITY

Abundant lodging facilities, shopping, dining, and sightseeing tucked alongside the spectacular eastern Sierra Nevada at our state capitol. At the start or end of your journey, Carson City provides the ideal base camp for your adventure.

SILVER SPRINGS

Located at the crossroads of U.S. 50 and U.S. 95A, Silver Springs is a gateway to western Nevada history and outdoor adventure. Near the Pony Express route and Fort Churchill State Historic Park, the town blends frontier heritage with recreation at Lahontan State Recreation Area.

FALLON

The Oasis of Nevada. Fallon is one of Nevada's major agricultural centers, famous for its delicious "Hearts of Gold" cantaloupes. Thirsty visitors can sample some estate-made whiskey and bourbon at Frey Ranch Estate Distillery, and from Stillwater Wildlife Refuge to Sand Mountain, visitors will find a number of recreational opportunities.

EUREKA

Stock up, enjoy a tasty meal, delve into history, or stay the night. With Hwy. 50 as its Main Street, most attractions and restaurants are all walkable stops. A place many call home, Eureka proves that some booms last and quality of life is the gold standard.

ELY

A top recreation destination set among mountain ranges. Hiking, biking, climbing, and water sports, with nearby parks for camping and trails. The downtown bursts with creativity, where public art and colorful murals bring energy and character to streets lined with history.

DAYTON

Just east of Carson City is Dayton, a place for history buffs and lovers of all things Old West. Prospectors and settlers were drawn to the fertile valley for both the Carson River and promise of gold. Today, relive that history in their historic downtown or at a one-of-a-kind venue, the Sutro Tunnel.

FERNLEY

Born first as a railroad camp, the city of Fernley was established in 1904 and later developed into an agricultural and ranching community. Today, its proximity to Reno and the big things happening in the Truckee River Canyon has helped the city continue to flourish.

AUSTIN

Once one of Nevada's most prosperous mining camps, Austin has managed to retain its 19th-century character, while also being a gateway to the towering Toiyabe Mountains, which offer pristine hiking, fishing, and overnight camping. Towering over endless valley vistas is Stokes Castle, a solid monument to mining-era grandeur and fleeting excesses.

BAKER & GREAT BASIN NATIONAL PARK

Located at the eastern edge of Hwy. 50 is the small, artsy hamlet of Baker. Rooms welcome road-worn visitors at the Stargazer Inn & Bristlecone General Store, open all year long. Baker also serves at the gateway to Nevada's only sole national park.

Home to Lehman Caves, Wheeler Peak, and bristlecone pine groves, visitors will find developed hiking trails, campgrounds, and an interpretive center. Designated an official Dark Sky Park, don't go to bed early.

Remember! "Half The Park Is After Dark."
